

HOLIDAY HILL CHURCH

A Word From the Pastor

On Sunday, January 26th, our church Lead Team, a combination of staff and ministry leaders, met to review, plan, and prepare to lead our church. We meet once per quarter and each time I ask a series of questions to gauge how they see the ministry of Holiday Hill. Following are four questions and the answers received. I was very thankful and pleased with what our leaders see God doing in His church, and I hope you will feel the same.

What is the 'pulse' of the church? Best 'pulse' in a while. Energy is 'kickin.' New people, more numbers, younger people. The right people are in the right spot. A variety of ministries. Attitude is good.

What do we have to celebrate? 'Blessing of more people, baptisms, good giving/stewardship, and buildings being updated. People coming want to find their place & help. Conversion growth. Breaking trends of churches that have been around a while and begin to fade in influence and growth. Unity – like-minded and cooperation.

Of what do we need to be aware? Security – always seek to ensure those who gather are safe and feel safe. Continued work on facilities to better facilitate ministry. Be wise to those who seek after their own agendas and seek to create issues. Create a culture of noticing when people are not present & seek them out. Ensure we answering/dealing w/ questions people have concerning how we are moving forward. Spiritual warfare.

What would you like to see in 2025? More testimonies. More baptisms. Increased attendance. Those not fully connected more involved & developing spiritually. Church unity – same page/direction.

I would love to hear your thoughts on these four questions.

February presents several great opportunities to work on relationships & have fun along the way. Relate Well Date Night, Monday, February 3rd – this is for anyone wanting to enhance relational health. Valentine's Ballroom Dancing and Dinner, Friday, February 14th. This event is for everyone – singles/couples – but fellas, date night is planned for you, do not mess it up J. Daddy-Daughter Dance, Saturday, February 22nd sponsored by our MACHO93 men's ministry. Take the time in February, and always, to invest in yourself and those you love.

The Christian Reformation took place in the 1500s and many changes came that ensured the Church and followers of Jesus were living more in line with the truth of the Gospel and Scripture. Five particular doctrines developed known as the Five Solos (Latin for alone/only) – Christ Alone, Faith Alone, Grace Alone, Scripture Alone, Glory to God Alone. We will look at one per week from February 2nd – March 2nd and I pray they will affirm and grow our faith in and relationship with Christ. In Christ, Pastor Albert

JOSH'S WORLD

Happy February, HHC Family! I hope this short month treats you well. I hope it's filled with fun. I hope your desired football team wins the big game, or at the very least you find enjoyment in the commercials. I think I've reached the stage in my life where I don't care so much about the game anymore. I have definitely reached the stage in my life where the halftime show is focused on my generational demographic. That's when you know you're middle aged.

Toilet Bowl Redux. The Toilet Bowl returns Sunday, February 9. Whether you're a competitor or a spectator come join in the fun shortly after service. It's more sports entertainment than it is sports. I promise it will cost much less than a ticket to the other show, and the refs will probably be just as bias.

Daddy Daughter Dance. Macho 93's Daddy Daughter Dance is this month too. I was at last year's event, and I can vouch that it's a very fun time. Make memories with your daughters – young or old. It's an investment of time that will not go unnoticed. If you're going to do something important, you might as well have fun doing it.

If there is anything we can do to better serve you, let me know. I hope you have a wonderful February. Take care. God bless. Enjoy the Buffalo chicken dip (because that's the only thing from Buffalo enjoying the big game). In Him, John | Micah 6:8

Young at Heart Lunch Out

Join us on Tuesday, February 11 at 11:00 AM for a delightful gathering at Bono's BBQ, 4907 Beach Blvd.
